

	Caregiver Assessment	Often	Sometimes	No or not applicable
Sleeping	I wake up one or more times a night to take my pet out to care for or assist my pet
Mind Frame	I worry about my pet when I am not at home
	I have to frequently monitor my pet's activities or whereabouts
	I find my pet's confusion or disorientation difficult to manage
	I am worried about my pet's suffering
	I am struggling to financially care for my pet
Appetite, thirst, medications and other treatments	I spend extra time preparing my pet's food or getting them to eat
	I feel my pet is not eating/drinking enough
	I struggle giving my pet medications
	I have a hard time giving my pet fluids under the skin
Cleanliness & Appearance	I often have to clean up accidents in the house
	I have to assist my pet with maintenance or routine management
	I have to restrict my pet to a certain areas or limit access to my home
	I routinely have to clean my pet's resting/sleeping areas
	I or others in my household find my pet's smell offensive or offputting
	I limit the amount of company to my home because of my pet's appearance, odor or behavior
Mobility	I have to assist my pet to navigate stairs
	I have to assist my pet to stand
Household	I feel others in my house are not sympathetic to my pet's increased needs to assistance
	There is new friction in our household because of my pet's behavior/need
	I feel the need to quickly clean up accidents in the house so others do not see it
	I find myself needing to explain my pet's changing behavior to others (cranky, confused, etc...)
	I frequently have to adjust my schedule to meet my pet's needs
	I am stressed with the amount of care my pet needs
	I feel overwhelmed

Caregiving	I need more emotional/physical support from others in providing care for my pet
	I am feeling anxious/depressed about the time I have left with my pet
	At times, I feel angry with my pet
	I feel guilty about my pet's condition			